

Footrest

An under-desk footrest is important in creating a comfortable and healthy position for your feet while gaming or working. It improves your long-term health when sitting for extended periods at a time.

The adjustable height of the Arozzi footrest makes it suit all individuals. It has a stylistically clean look which makes it blend in well in any environment. The Arozzi footrest is made from high-density memory foam that helps improve your posture and increases blood circulation to your legs. It can also be modified in various ways to meet the needs of the user.
